

LOCAL SOLUTIONS: Eastern Regional Climate Preparedness Conference

Agenda: Day I

Monday, April 4, 2016

7:30 am      Breakfast/Registration

9:00 am      Welcome
 Stephen B. Jones, President, Antioch University New England
 Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, City of Baltimore

Keynote
 Avis Ransom, Commission on Sustainability Baltimore

9:45 am      Break
 Exhibit Hall

SESSIONS

WORKSHOP

10:00 am	Equitable Adaptation: Collaborating for Resilience	Planning for the Needs of At-Risk Communities	Living with the Old, Building for the New: Resilient Buildings	Partnerships that Work: Enhancing Ecosystem Services	10:00 am–Noon Part 1: Adaptive Gradients in the Coastal Environment: A Framework for Decision-Making on Infrastructure Responses
11:30 am	Break Exhibit Hall

Noon      Lunch—Keynote
 A. Stanley Meiburg, Acting Deputy Administrator, U.S. EPA

SESSIONS

WORKSHOP

1:45 pm	Effectively Using the Preparation Frame	Conducting Vulnerability Assessments: Flooding	Turning Up the Heat	Understanding the Psychology of Trauma: Key Competencies for Working with Survivors of Climate Change Impacts	1:45–5:15 pm Part 2: Adaptive Gradients in the Coastal Environment: A Framework for Decision-Making on Infrastructure Responses
3:15 pm	Break Exhibit Hall

SESSIONS

WORKSHOP

3:45 pm	Picture this ... Using Visualization and Storytelling to Engage around Climate Risk and Resilience	Conducting Vulnerability Assessments: Heat	Critical Infrastructure: Energy & Transportation, What Can Local Decision Makers Do	Low-Cost Resiliency: Ecosystem Services and the Municipal Budget	Part 2: Continued
5:15 pm	Cocktails Exhibit Hall

Dinner for Networking (on your own)